Minor in History (24 credits)

This program applies to all who entered the History Minor between Fall 2015 and Winter 2022 (inclusive). Anyone entering the History Major after that date will follow the new program (see the document "History Minor 2022").

The History Major established in 2015 requires 24 credits, distributed in this way:

6 Credits	History Skills Workshop courses (HISW) – see note below
12 Credits	200-level HIST courses
6 Credits	300-level HIST courses

Note on HISW courses: Due to the program change coming into effect in Fall 2022, the History Department will no longer offer HISW courses. If you have not yet satisfied those requirements for your program, the following HIST courses can be used as substitutions.

200 – Introduction to History
202 – Modern Europe
203 – History of Canada, Pre-Confederation
205 – History of Canada, Post-Confederation
206 – Medieval Europe
207 – Early Modern Europe
208 – Introduction to the History of the Balkans
209 – Quebec to 1867
210 – Quebec since Confederation
235 – The Holocaust
242 – History of the Middle East
251 – History of the US to the Civil War Era
253 – History of the US since the Civil War Era
261 – History of South Asia
262 – History of China
263 – History of Japan
264 – History of Africa
274 – The Atlantic World
276 – History of Latin America: The Colonial Period
277 – History of Latin America: The Modern Period
281 – Film in History
283 – The 20th Century: A Global History

The General Education Rule and the History Minor
- If your primary program (Major/Specialization/Honours) is in a Social Science or Science subject, then by taking the History Minor you fulfill both the 24-credit and the General Education rules.
- If your primary program is in the Humanities sector, then you fulfill the 24-credit rule but not the General Education requirement for 6 credits outside the Humanities sector. See https://www.concordia.ca/artsci/history/programs/undergraduate/requirements.html for details.

https://www.concordia.ca/artsci/history.html